COTTON CHEAPER IN BRITAIN THAN HERE

Great Britain today buys cotton products far below the normal quotation at the expense of the American cotton industries, because President Wilson maintains the war export embargo. Representative Black of Texas told the House Judiciary Committee today, in urging repeal of the President's embargo power.

The committee agreed to forward Black's resolution proposing the repeal to the War Trade Board for comment.

SEATTLE MAYOR ILL.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 18.—Mayor Ole Hanson is lying at his home today suffering from a nervous breakdown said by his secretary to be the result of exposure and strenuous work during the general strike here. A physician is in constant attendance.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Dinner Parties Are Numerous and Important—Reception at Congressional Club—Diplomatic News.

JUDGE and Mrs. A. A. Adams and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jamison, of New York, will come to Washington to attend the dinner which the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall will give on Saturday evening, with the Spanish Ambassador and Mme. de Riano as honor guests.

Tomorrow evening the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall are dining with the Minister of the Netherlands and Mme. Cremer and several dinners will be given in their honor next week. On Monday evening the Japanese Ambassador and Viscountess Ishii will entertain them and the Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Houston have cards out for a dinner for them next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Norris will give a dinner tonight for the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Carter Glass.

The Spanish Ambassador and Mme. de Riano were entertained at dinner last evening by the Secretary of Commerce and Mrs. Redfield, who had a distinguished official company to meet them.

Other important dinner parties were given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Hamlin, who entertained for the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Carter Glass; the Acting Secretary of State and Mrs. Frank Lyon Felt, whose guests were asked to meet the Minister of Serbia and Mme. Grouitch; the Bulgarian Minister and Mme. Penaretoff, Senator and Mrs. Charles B. Henderson, and Congressman and Mrs. John A. Peters. Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Charles McCawley also gave a dinner, entertaining at Grasslands for their guest, Mrs. Henry Claws, of New York.

The Speaker of the House and Mrs. Champ Clark were the honor guests at a delightful reception given last evening at the Congressional Club. The guests were largely recruited from official society. Mrs. Horace Mann Towner, retiring president of the club, received, assisted by the officers who have been serving with her, and a number of club members served as assistant hostesses.

Several dinner parties preceded the reception. The clubhouse was tastefully decorated, and the reception was one of the pleasantest of the midwinter season.

Mrs. Warder Entertains.

Mrs. Benjamin H. Warder entertained a distinguished company of fifty-eight guests at dinner last night in her K street home, which she opened for the occasion. Those present included many of Mrs. Warder's friends among the old residents of Washington and a number from diplomatic and official circles. Four tables were laid in the stately dining room and one table in the picture room. After dinner the guests were invited to the picture room, where they were entertained with a short program, including several harp solos by Mrs. Edith Marmion Broslus, and bird warblers by Miss Harrie F. made, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. Broslus on the harp. Miss Fumade also told stories and Miss Mildred Brown gave humorous readings.

Mrs. William M. Calder, wife of Senator Calder of New York, and the wives of the members of the New York delegation in Congress who make their home at the Willard, will be at home there this afternoon. The other hostesses are Mrs. George W. Fairchild, Mrs. Thomas B. Dunn, Mrs. James S. Parker, Mrs. James W. Husted, and Mrs. Homer P. Snyder. The reception will be held in the red room, which is effectively decorated with spring flowers for the occasion. Each of the hostesses has asked two ladies to assist her in dispensing hospitality. Mrs. Charles C. McChord, Mrs. T. DeWitt Talmage, Mrs. James Carroll Frazer, and Mrs. Luther W. Mott are among those who will assist.

Discontinues "At Home."

Mrs. Frelinghuysen, wife of Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, will not receive tomorrow afternoon nor again this season on account of illness.

Mrs. Frederic A. Delano will be hostess at dinner tonight. Miss Louise Delano, who has been visiting in New York, will return to town this afternoon.

Mrs. William Holland Wilmer, who has been away from Washington for much of the time her husband, Major Wilmer, medical corps, U. S. A., has been in the service, has taken an apartment at the St. Nicholas. Dr. Wilmer is still abroad.

General Ureulla to Leave.

Washington society will learn with regret of the approaching departure of Gen. Nicholas Ureulla, a Czechoslovakian military attaché of the Spanish embassy, and Mme. de Ureulla, who have been connected with the embassy here for some years. The date is not yet known for their departure, nor is it known to what post General Ureulla is to be transferred.

Fernando Umberto, of the Italian navy staff, is in New York for a few days.

Boaz Long, American minister to Slovakia, whose home is in Las Vegas, N. M., and his sister, Mrs. Teresa Long, will be at home on Friday afternoon from 4:30 until 6 o'clock, at Stoneleigh Court, apartment 306, to all New Mexicans now in Washington. Mrs. Long will be assisted by Mrs.

Mrs. Jones, who has been chaperone of her brother's household for several months, will leave Washington before long for California.

Gives Supper Party.

Mrs. Charles Anthony Fulton entertained at a supper party last night in honor of Miss Marguerite Simonds, taking her guests to the Club de Vingt. The company included Miss Anna Hamlin, Miss Courtney Lettis, Miss Antoinette Graves, Miss Margaret Deebie, Miss Jeanne Bankhead, Miss Elizabeth Wamsley, Miss Florence Judge, and her guest, Miss Helen Ingham, of Buffalo. Among the men present were two American ex-capt. Douglass Campbell, and Major James Melsner; Franklin K. Lane, Jr.; Joseph Shanley, Capt. Robert Davis, U. S. A.; Captain Dickey, Colonel Keene, U. S. A.; Col. Raymond E. Lee, U. S. A.; several officers from Fort Monroe, Va., and others.

Congressman and Mrs. James W. Husted, who gave a dinner last night in the red room of the Willard, had their guests Senator and Mrs. William L. Calder, Senator William P. Dillingham, Congressman and Mrs. S. Wallace Dempsey, Congressman and Mrs. Thomas B. Dunn, Congressman and Mrs. Joe H. Eagle, Congressman and Mrs. George W. Fairchild, Congressman and Mrs. E. Foss, Congressman and Mrs. Walter W. McKee, Congressman and Mrs. Luther W. Mott, Congressman and Mrs. James S. Parker, Congressman and Mrs. Calvin D. Paige, Congressman and Mrs. John A. Peter, Congressman and Mrs. Edmund Platt, Congressman and Mrs. J. J. Shouse, Congressman and Mrs. Homer P. Snyder, Congressman and Mrs. Rollin E. Sanford, Congressman and Mrs. Bertrand H. Snell, Congressman and Mrs. Allen T. Treadway, Congressman and Mrs. Charles E. Ward, Congressman and Mrs. Samuel E. Whelton, Congressman and Mrs. Thomas S. Crage, Lieut. and Mrs. Lyon Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Graves, and Major William E. Fowler, U. S. A.

Gen. Emilio Cugnetto, military attaché of the Italian embassy, will go to Philadelphia on February 21 to stay with Col. and Mrs. John Muckie for a few days. Colonel and Mrs. Muckie will entertain at luncheon and dinner for him one that day, and in the afternoon Colonel Muckie will give a reception in his honor.

Mrs. Brinton Stone was hostess at tea yesterday afternoon, entertaining at the home of her niece, Miss Hanan, 1229 H street. The hospitality was arranged in celebration of Mrs. Stone's birthday, and the apartment was adorned with flowers sent the hostess in honor of her anniversary. Mrs. Samuel E. Throppe, Mrs. Robinson Downey, and Mrs. Henry Holcombe presided at the tea tables, and others assisting were Mrs. Brown, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Charles Henry Stone. Miss Hanan received with her aunt.

Edouard de Billy, deputy French high commissioner, has come to New York and is staying at the Vanderbilt Hotel.

Miss Anna Hamlin, who will go to Boston next week to visit, will be the guest of Mrs. Gordon Abbott.

Miss Anna Hamlin is chairman of the young women's committee for the Noel House ball, Friday evening, at Rauscher's. William Rouse Clarke is chairman of the men's floor committee. Among Miss Hamlin's assistants are the Misses Glass, Miss Mildred Bromwell, Miss Lela Gordon, Miss Emil Sims, Miss Antoinette Graves, Miss Julie Zaidvar, Miss Colleen Rogers, Miss Margaret Hurling, Miss Elizabeth Grinnell, Miss Polly Brooks, Miss Frances Hopkins, Miss Mary Hellen, Miss Eleanor Johnson, Miss Brooke Russell, Miss Lily Lyon, Miss Margaret Deebie, Miss Margaret Tuttle, Miss Marguerite Simonds, and Miss Eleanor Hoover.

Invitations have been issued for a lecture by Mrs. George Barnett on "Observations in the War Zone," which will be given on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Theodore Daily Myers Mason House.

Now's the Time to Buy Your Refrigerator

A combination of effort—ours and the makers', render it possible for us to place on sale an assortment of models, in a variety of sizes that will meet every family's requirements—and at prices that cannot be expected when the season arrives. We can commend these Refrigerators strongly for satisfactory service.

The Cases are of seasoned Ash; in Golden Oak finish; the provision chambers are of galvanized steel or white enamel; all the hardware is brass, nickel plated; waste pipes are removable, which permits of perfect cleanliness; and latest patent drip cup attachment. The insulation is of the most scientific and practical type—with a dead air space and non-conducting sheathing—that attain the best results in refrigeration. The doors are fitted with new automatic fastenings that relieve strain on the hinges. We give you the exact sizes, and approximate ice capacity.
